

The Mobile Outreach Clinic provides primary and preventive care services at no cost to the patient and to all individuals regardless of their race, ethnicity, sex, gender, national origin, disability, religion, sexual orientation or gender identity.

Locations we serve:

- East Gainesville
- Northeast Gainesville
- Southeast Gainesville
- Bronson
- Hawthorne
- Micanopy
- Waldo

Some of the services we offer include:

- Routine physicals and wellness check-ups
- Health screenings (including blood pressure, blood sugar, HIV testing/counseling, cancer screenings)
- Reproductive screenings (Pap smears/pelvic exams, breast exams, pregnancy testing)
- Family planning and contraceptive care/education
- Minor acute ailments and illnesses
- Chronic illnesses (hypertension, diabetes, COPD, depression)
- Referral services, including but not limited to WE CARE Network and UF Health specialty clinics

MOBILE OUTREACH CLINIC

A free clinic for the North Central Florida community.

To make an appointment,
please call 352.273.5329.

UF | UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA